About the CCCU

The Council for Christian Colleges & Universities is the leading voice for Christian higher education, including more than 185 Christian institutions around the world. With campuses across the globe, including more than 150 in the U.S. and Canada and more than 30 from an additional 17 countries, CCCU institutions are accredited, comprehensive colleges and universities whose missions are Christ-centered and rooted in the historic Christian faith. Most also have curricula rooted in the arts and sciences. The CCCU's mission is to advance the cause of Christ-centered higher education and to help our institutions transform lives by faithfully relating scholarship and service to biblical truth. The CCCU is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization headquartered in Washington, D.C.

185+

Advocacy Efforts

The CCCU's advocacy is primarily centered in the United States, although we represent our international institutions to the U.S. governmental agencies as the need arises. In all circumstances, the CCCU advocates for the universal educational principles of accessibility, affordability, and accountability that are shared by both U.S. and international institutions. The CCCU is a non-partisan organization striving to work effectively with all political parties to advance the cause of Christ-centered education.

> Why Sponsor?

It has never been more timely to connect with leaders in higher education, as new and pressing challenges are shaping the next generation. Sponsorship allows industry experts to network and collaborate closely with these leaders, to bring them needed resources, and to build relationships across multiple areas of campus leadership. Sponsoring a CCCU event provides an opportunity to access a unique and valuable network of higher education leaders whose shared passion for holistic, Christ-centered higher education creates a deeply rooted community.

WHY SPONSORS VALUE THIS EVENT:

“The CCCU conference is a priority for our company every season. We have been a sponsor for over a decade and we love the friendships that we have built with university partners and the team at the CCCU. One of the advantages that I see in sponsoring CCCU events is the ability to attend the sessions, events and meals and sit alongside university administrators and hear about the challenges they face. It has allowed us to curtail our products and services to better meet their needs. Plus, we have made a lot of lasting friendships! This past conference opened the door for us to have eight strong follow-up conversations that led to many new partnerships. If a vendor is looking to do business in this market, it is a necessity to be at these events.”

Darren Campbell, CEO, Campus & Slingshot

2025 Leadership Development Institutes

JUNE 5-9 & JUNE 9-13 | SUMAS, WA

What is the Leadership Development Institute?

CCCU Leadership Development Institutes equip emerging leaders from CCCU institutions to pursue broader leadership responsibilities through a year-long mentorship program. During the initial in-person professional development training week, approximately 30 emerging leaders gather at Cedar Springs Christian Retreat Center located near the Canadian border in Sumas, WA. This unique sponsorship offers an immersive experience that affords one sponsor unparalleled access to current and future CCCU leaders.

SPONSORSHIP OPTIONS

INSTITUTES

The Snezek Library Leadership Institute provides a forum for CCCU library directors and deans to engage in lively, informative, and stimulating conversation.

Please contact sponsorship@cccu.org for more information on how to sponsor CCCU institutes.

VALUED PARTNERS DIRECTORY

Our online Valued Partners Directory gives organizations the opportunity to showcase their connection to Christian higher education by providing detailed descriptions of relevant products and services with links directly to their website. Please contact sponsorship@cccu.org for more information.

SPONSORED EMAIL BLASTS

During the conference year, there may be opportunities for organizations to promote webinars or content that is relevant to a particular peer group at CCCU member institutions through paid email blasts. If your organization is interested in promoting a webinar or other relevant content through a paid email blast, please contact sponsorship@cccu.org.

ADVERTISING

Download the CCCU media kit to learn more about print, email and website advertising opportunities. ADVANCE is the print magazine of the CCCU, published in the fall and spring with a circulation of nearly 5,000. Advertising is also available in the CCCU's email newsletters, eAdvance (monthly to nearly 10,000 subscribers), From Capitol Hill (monthly to nearly 2,000 subscribers), or Faculty Newsletters (a tri-annual newsletter sent during spring, fall & winter terms) delivering your message directly to the inboxes of key campus leaders and influencers, and on the CCCU website, which averages nearly 34,000 pageviews each month.

CAREER CENTER

Find a job with meaning. More than just a job finding service, the CCCU Career Center connects passionate people with meaningful careers in Christian higher education, church ministry, and at faith-based nonprofits, as well as with available internships. With 22,500 jobs posted and 40,000 job seekers, the Career Center is an affordable and effective solution for filling open positions and recruiting top talent from a wide pool of applicants, from entry-level graduates to seasoned professionals looking for their next career move.

CONTACT US

For additional information and questions regarding sponsoring a CCCU event or advertising with, please contact sponsorship@cccu.org.

Sponsor Guidelines

Sponsorships are on a first-come, first-serve basis. The CCCU reserves the right to refuse any sponsorship contingent upon review by the CCCU staff. CCCU reserves the right to refuse sponsorship after the acceptance of the application and contract if information should come to the attention of CCCU which, in the reasonable judgment of CCCU, demonstrates that the proposed sponsors would be inconsistent with the principles espoused by CCCU or unfavorable to the reputation of the CCCU.

The CCCU cannot confirm your sponsorship nor provide any sponsor benefits until full payment has been received and processed. Sponsors must submit a binding sponsorship application form, including acceptance of the CCCU's terms and conditions. All sponsorships are non-refundable.

The CCCU is an explicitly Christian organization. While we do not require or expect sponsors to be Christian, we want to be forthright about the values of the CCCU, as many of these values are counter-cultural in our society. Sponsoring with the CCCU may be seen as an endorsement of these Christian values.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- All sponsor representatives must wear official name badges provided by the CCCU at all times during sponsored events.
- Sponsors may display materials only in approved locations.
- Sponsor contact with event attendees must at all times be in keeping with the character of a professional meeting – informative and not intrusive.
- Spouses are considered representatives of sponsoring organizations.
- Additional terms and conditions may be specified by the host hotel or by the CCCU.
- Outstanding invoices must be paid within 60 days of the new CCCU fiscal year (which begins July 1) prior to any new/current fiscal year conference sponsorships being accepted.

Deliverables

Upon receipt of payment, the following items are needed to complete your order:

- 25-word description of your organization (if applicable to your sponsorship level).
- Company logo in a vector-based EPS format. This information can be sent via email to sponsorship@cccu.org.

PAYMENT

Once commitment form is received, an invoice will be sent with complete payment instructions. We will not reserve any sponsorship without full payment. Payment may be made in the form of ACH, check, credit card, or money order. There will be a 2% administration fee assessed for companies choosing to pay by credit card.

Cancellation or Withdrawal: All sponsorships are non-refundable. If, after payment, you determine you can no longer sponsor the event, the funds collected can be used toward a sponsorship at a future event.

Failure to pay in full for the sponsorship within 60 days prior to event entitles the CCCU to cancel the sponsorship.

TABLETOP DISPLAY REGULATIONS

The CCCU reserves the right to refuse exhibit space to any applicant for any reason. The exhibitor may not display signs that are not professionally prepared or in the opinion of CCCU detract from the appearance of the conference.

Limitation of Liability: The sponsor agrees to make no claim for any reason whatsoever against CCCU, its employees, the hotel, or the city and/or state wherein Event is held for loss, theft, damage, destruction of goods, nor for any injury to him/herself or employees while the conference is in progress, being set up, or being taken down. Sponsor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless CCCU and its employees against any and all claims of any person arising out of acts, omissions, or negligence of exhibitor, its agents, or its employees.

Further, neither CCCU, its employees, officers, volunteers, nor directors shall be liable for failure of the scheduled conference to be held due to fire, water damage, public emergency, strikes, other labor disputes, boycotts, cancellation of facility contracts, or acts of God beyond the power or control of CCCU to prevent.

Assignment of Space: Tabletop display space will be assigned in the order in which applications and payments are received. Tabletop display space will not be assigned until full payment is received. The CCCU reserves the right to alter the official floorplan, and/or reassign any sponsor's space as deemed necessary.

Limitation on Promotion and Demonstrations: During the Event, all demonstrations, promotional activities, and distribution of materials must be confined within the limits of the exhibit tables in the exhibit area. The playing of loud music, videos, films, or the like, or any other loud or distracting activity that could be objectionable to neighboring exhibitors is prohibited. Exhibitor warrants that all copyrighted material to be performed or played has been duly authorized or licensed by the copyright owners or their representatives and agrees to indemnify and hold CCCU harmless from any and all claims and expenses, including legal fees, which might arise from questions of use of any such material described above.

The CCCU is not responsible for hotel personnel, nor can the CCCU guarantee that the services and/or utilities promised by the hotel shall be available during the conference or event.

Security: Neither the CCCU nor the hotel or campus personnel shall be liable for any damage or theft to the sponsor's display or property. The sponsor should not rely on CCCU-provided security for any reason.
